Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Keyes et al. '960 in view of Croom.

Keyes et al. shows a reservoir 12; inlet conduit 14, first outlet conduit 24; sight tube 36; return conduit at 30 or at 38; second outlet conduit 26; first sensor 34; second sensor 32; first valve means 30; and second valve means 28. Keyes et al. lacks the interior wall of the sight tube tapering and the number of first outlet conduits. Croom shows a tapering conduit 11, 12, the taper seen at numeral 39 in Figure 1. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a taper to the sight tube as taught by Croom on the device of Keyes et al. in order to better control the flow out of the tube. The specific taper would have been obvious dependent on the desired flow rate. Finally, providing additional outlet conduits would have been an obvious multiple use of an already employed structure and also would permit for different measured amounts without having to change tubes.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 7/18/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant contends that since no motivation is explicitly set forth in the references, the rejection is improper; and that Keyes does not show the second outlet connected to the sight tubes. First, implicit motivation is useable and proper when combining references; especially when such a benefit/motivation is so well known, that explicitly stating it is not necessary. With regard to the outlet, outlet 26 is connected to sight tube 36 as is clearly seen in the figures. Note, only one sight tube is required as there is "at least one outlet conduit".

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
